Planning the filming of the promotional film

Hamlet's Descent

Title Screen

Opening Scene: Father's Ghost gives charge

Hamlet Sr. tells Hamlet he gets a chance to return

Act I: Fight the Ghost of Fortinbras

Hamlet must face his fears and fight someone he believes is better than him. This opens the door to returning to Earth.

Fortinbras gives up the key to the portal that opens to Earth.

Act II: As the Crow Flies

Elsinore is infested with crows, a sign of the moral fall the people have experienced.

Song: Broken Wings

Act II: Holding out for a Hero

Hamlet encounters Ophelia in Act II.

After killing enough of the crows to purify Elsinore, Hamlet meets Ophelia. She is trapped in another dimension, and only Hamlet's true feelings can free her. But how does he find them? Ophelia gives Hamlet a heart, enabling him to return to life.

Act II: Holding Out for a Hero

Song: Holding Out for a Hero

Act III: Philosophy

Hamlet fights his doubts on this level, his fear of Claudius, his guilt toward his mother, and his poor treatment of his friend, Horatio, whom he encounters at the end.

Horatio is possessed by Hamlet's doubt. When Hamlet defeats this imprisoned friend, he receives the medallion of courage.

Act III: Philosophy

Song: Synchronicity II

Act IV: What a Feeling

Rather than wait for Hamlet to act, Ophelia takes charge and fights her way through her dungeon of illusion. She is haunted by her father and brother and breaks free of their chains of control. Defeating them earns her the breastplate of valor, and entry into the real world

Song: What a Feeling

Act V: Anything for Love

Hamlet is reminded of his failure with Ophelia by his father. He realizes he should stop questioning and act. He must destroy his doubt once and for all and end his anger toward his mother. Gertrude is the boss of this level, but fighting is not the way to win.

Song: Anything for Love

Act VI: Never Tear Us Apart

After forgiving his mother, Hamlet is sent to another realm. It's the real world and he is fully restored. Ophelia joins him, and after initial surprise, they embark on a quest to clean Elsinore of corruption and ghosts. The final battle is with Claudius.
